Want Freeways? Write Your Legislators

If you're a user of Mt. Diablo Boulevard and want it included in the state's highway construction program, write to your state senator and assemblyman.

That was urged this week by Joseph Judson of Pittsburg, chairman of the Contra Costa County Development Association's highway committee.

JUDSON'S COMMITTEE has recommended to the association's directors that they adopt a resolution urging county legislators to include Mt. Diablo Boulevard in Study No. 1. It also was recommended that $28 million be earmarked for development of the highway.

To do so, Judson asked residents to write to Senator George Miller Jr., Rt. 2, Box 251-C, Martinez; Assemblyman Donald Doyle, 3163 Stanley Boulevard, Lafayette, or Assemblyman S. C. Masterson, 474 31st Street, Richmond.

"The letters to representatives," Judson said, "should urge Mt. Diablo Boulevard in addition to Highway 40 (Highway 40 already is included in the study program). Both are vitally necessary for our county. We want the addition specified."

JUDSON THIS WEEK lauded Senator Randolph Collier for his revised state highway program, which calls for construction of a metropolitan freeway from the Broadway Tunnel to Walnut Creek and beyond, and cutoff route from Vallejo via Highway 21 to Dublin, besides the Highway 40 proposal.

"This is the program the development association proposed two years ago," Judson said.

"We have consistently informed Senator Collier that Highway 40 as the only Contra Costa highway in the primary system would not be satisfying to the county," he said.

COLLIER'S PLAN proposes a cent-and-a-half-a-gallon gas tax increase; a three-cent boost in diesel taxes and a 33 per cent increase in other motor vehicle user levies.

In addition, a million dollar bond issue is proposed to finance an accelerated highway construction program in the next 10 years.

The senator said his completed bill would guarantee every county at least 22 per cent more in state highway construction money than it now is assured. The bill will get its committee hearing Tuesday.

INJURED PEOPLE, SMASHED CARS—these were the results of area auto accidents during the past several days. Top picture shows bystanders looking at the two cars which crashed head-on at 3 a. m. Sunday on Mt. Diablo Boulevard near Village Center, Lafayette. In foreground is the west-bound Buick which was driven by Lloyd Hall Selby, 21, of 107 Camino Don Miguel, Orinda, U. S. Navy radio machinist, third class. In background is the Chevrolet which, at the time of the crash, was being driven east by Donald B. Johnson, 42, of 1121 El Curtola, Sun Valley. Johnson and his wife were taken to Concord Community Hospital — he with a fractured right leg, she with a fractured pelvis. Selby transferred from Concord Hospital to Mare Island Navy Hospital, suffered a dislocated left hip joint and lacerations on his face and right knee. Bottom picture shows Walnut Creek Policeman Lou McKim checking over the car which overturned at 5:20 a. m. Saturday on Mt. Diablo Boulevard. Chamber Hears Sauer Answer to Orinda Problems

Sheriff James Long, H. L. Cummings, chairman of the Board of Supervisors and Sauer were invited to give the county's answer to problems on parking, road development and freeway construction.

LONG HAD THE flu and was unable to attend, but was contacted by phone by Ramsay Underwood, meeting chairman. Cummings had previously notified the group that he had an engagement in Sacramento and could not come.

Here is a roundup of the questions and the answers:

Is the Sheriff's office now in a position to enforce parking time limit ordinances?

Long replied that the office would carry out this ordinance with warning tags for violators for the next two weeks and citations thereafter.

WILL SPEED limits be enforced in Orinda Village, the approach to the Crossroads from the south, particularly to the corner of Golden Gate Way and Moraga Highway, along San Pablo Dam Road from the Crossroads to the Village, and Glorietta Boulevard and Moraga Highway?

"This is a matter for the State Highway Patrol," said Long by phone. "They are responsible."

Sauer was asked if the county would take care of cleaning the streets, especially in the business area.

He replied that it could be a county responsibility, but that it has never been undertaken for fear that it might grow out of hand. "The business district might be all right," he said, "but it would probably spread into residential areas, and we could not handle it. I suggest that you write to the supervisors and see what they suggest."

HOW ABOUT the improvement of Avenida De Orinda? Can we get diagonal parking lines, a two-hour parking limit and red zones so that the fire department will have free access?

"Yes," answered Sauer. "Send a request to the county to make a survey. We will do it and we will work with you all the way."

Can we now park diagonally on the San Pablo Dam Road in Orinda

THIS IS EL TOYONAL, a few hundred yards above the Loma Vista junction. Richard Thomson of 3 Loma Vista is looking at the slide which occurred during last week's rains. A county road crew barricaded the road, and school buses have been rerouted over Loma Vista and La Encinal. This slide is a short distance above the El Toyonal slide of last winter. On Monday, the day after this picture was taken, Thomson reported to Fort Ord for basic army training. So one of his last memories of Orinda before he entered the service was of the new El Toyonal slide. — SUN Photo by Mattson

'Planning for Orinda' to be Discussed

What's the future for planning in Contra Costa County — and especially in Orinda?

That, in a nutshell, will be the subject of a community meeting to be held at Orinda School auditorium some time next month, under sponsorship of the Orinda Association.

Details are being worked out by the Civic Affairs Committee, which agreed Monday night on general plans for the gathering.

The public meeting will probably be held on one of four suggested dates — April 15, 16, 22 or 23, depending on availability of the auditorium and of speakers.

AS OUTLINED by Donn Sigerson, chairman of the Orinda Planning Committee and vice-chairman of the Independent Citizens Committee on Planning, and as approved by Civic Affairs delegates at their monthly session at Orinda School, the agenda of the community gathering is as follows:

1. — Why a Master Plan? Speaker: Peter Veitch, president of the Orinda Association.

2. — What is the county doing to solve problems of zoning and planning? Speaker: Joseph D. DeCosta of Sleepy Hollow, member of the County Planning Commission.

3. — General program of the Independent Citizens Committee. Speaker: Boone Robinson of Orinda, board member of that organization.

4. — WILL ORINDANS have a voice in the Master Plan? Speaker: Board of Supervisors Chairman H. L. Cummings, supervisor from the Second Supervisorial District.

5. — What can Orinda do about the problem of planning? Speaker: A planning consultant, probably Harold Wise of Menlo Park, now consultant to the City of Walnut Creek.

6. — What is being done by Orinda on the problem? Speaker: Donn Sigerson.

Ground Observer Corps Volunteers Urgently Needed

The call is out for volunteers for the Ground Observer Corps, according to Mrs. Donn Court, recently appointed by the Contra Costa County Civil Defense and Disaster Council to organize the GOC post for the Lafayette-Orinda-Walnut Creek-Moraga area.

Pointing to the recent incidents involvnig Allied planes shot down in Germany as evidence of increased world tensions, Mrs. Court emphasized the urgent need for immediate action to complete civilian defense plans here.

WHILE SITES for the sky-watchers' post are being considered, plans have already been completed for a training class to be conducted by Lieut. Richard B. Moon, Air Force officer, from the Oakland Filter Center.

The class, to be held March 26 at 7:30 p.m., at Acalanes High School, is open to the public. All citizens interested in cooperating with the Air Force and local civil defense groups in establishing a vital link in our national defense system are urged to attend.

THE LOCAL Ground Observer Corps post will be one of a chain of similar posts, established at eight-mile intervals throughout the entire state of California, as well as in all other strategic areas of the United States.

At full strength, the Air Force envisions 700 posts in California alone, each manned 24 hours a day. According to Air Force sources, 150 volunteers is the minimum requirement for each post to be manned adequately.

ALL PERSONS interested in the local Ground Observer Corps may obtain additional information by calling Orinda 2596, Lafayette 2762 or YEllowstone 5-5267.

The need is especially urgent for a chief observer. Other officers already appointed for the corps, in addition to Mrs. Court, are Frank Pennock, assistant chief observer in charge of maintenance, and Mrs. Robert Kahn, assistant chief observer in charge of publicity.

Leebricks Leaving

Mrs. Paul Leebrick has returned from Washington, D. C., where she has been househunting. Mr. Leebrick has been transferred by the International Business Machine Company, so the family will soon be leaving their home on Irvine Drive.

It's Official For Rheem View

It was anti-climactic, but there it was on the County Planning Commission agenda Tuesday night:

"Rheem View Acres—South Orinda Area, adjoining north boundary of Moraga Midlands Addition — A Zone. (Lots are over 10,000 square feet, must be posted and published.)"

Tentative map for the new 26-lot subdivision of D. L. Rheem had been approved last week by the Planning Commission. But the motions had to be gone through again, according to Planning Technician Tom Heaton, because an error in date had occurred in the legal notice and in the posting, which gave March 17 as the hearing date.

Earlier Tuesday, the Board of Supervisors okayed the planners' recommendation that exceptions to grade requirements be granted for Rheem View Acres.

Rheem Highlands Elects Officers

Rheem Highlands Association recently elected officers for 1953. They are:

Lou Fox, president; Ross Van Dyke, vice-president; Milton Winter, secretary; Ray Small, treasurer.

Board of Directors—Lou Fox, Ross Van Dyke, Charles Ivy, Dave Thaxter, Angus McLeod.

Three Injured in Head-on Smashup

A Walnut Creek couple and a young sailor from Orinda were injured in a head-on auto crash on Mt. Diablo Boulevard near Village Center, Lafayette, at 3 a. m. Sunday.

The California Highway Patrol reported that Mr. and Mrs. Donald B. Johnson of 1121 El Curtola, Sun Valley, and Lloyd Hall Selby of 107 Camino Don Miguel, Orinda, were hurt in the accident.

THE JOHNSONS were taken to Concord Community Hospital, which reported that Johnson, 42, had a fractured right leg and that his wife, Peggy, 43, had a fractured pelvis. Both were described as getting along satisfactorily.

Selby, a radio machinist, third class, in the U. S. Navy, was transferred from Concord Hospital to Mare Island Navy Hospital, which reported he had a dislocation of the left hip joint and lacerations on the face and right knee, and that he was improving.

THE WESTBOUND BUICK which Selby was driving burst into flames. The Lafayette Fire Department sent a truck to the scene, and the firemen, directed by Chief Shirley Peakes, put out the blaze.

Johnson was the driver of the other car, an eastbound Chevrolet. His wife was riding with him.

Selby was in civilian clothes at the time of the smashup.

Five Get Eagle Award Monday

Five Orinda boys will become Eagle Scouts at an Eagle Court to be held jointly with Boy Scout Troops 200 and 207 and Explorer Post 300 Monday night at 8 o'clock at Orinda School auditorium.

They are Bob Harrison of Post 300; his brother, George Harrison, John Hall and Doug Krotz of Troop 200, and Peter St. Hill of Troop 207.

This will be the first time in the history of the Meridian District that two brothers have received their Eagle awards at the same time.

Presentation of the awards will be made by Russ Graff of Danville, chairman of the Meridian District, principal speaker at the ceremonies. Rev. Charles M. Hill will give the invocation, and Rev. Fred Morrow will offer the benediction.

County Burglary Ring Smashed by Sheriff's Office

A month-long crime wave was ended this week with the capture of six teen-aged boys.

Sheriff's Office deputies and Walnut Creek Policemen said the arrest cleared up four Orinda burglaries, one at Mt. Diablo High School, and several car clouts and attempted burglaries in Walnut Creek.

WHEN ARRESTED Monday night ,officers found their car loaded with articles valued in excess of $1800. The car was traced and stopped when an Orinda resident became suspiciious of the boys loitering near her home.

According to officers, the boys skipped classes at Mt. Diablo High School and entered two Orinda homes.

At the home of G. F. Bonnington, 3 El Sereno Road ,they picked up a woman's watch insured at $1200 and other jewelry. Another Orinda home also was broken into.

ON MARCH 11, the home of Dr. Alfred D. Lane at 9 Ranch Road, Orinda, was burglarized with $20, five lighters, a dime bank and a man's watch taken.

In Walnut Creek, Police Officer Vincent Young and Sheriff's Deputy Louis Skuce said the arrest cleared up four attempteld burglaries where the boys were frightened off. Car cloutings solved include those reported by auto dealers Sammie Evans and J. T. Lucas.

In Concord, two markets — Century Market and Farmers' Market—were included in the sextet's burglaries, officers said. There they got cash, beer and cigarettes.

ON A PRELIMINARY check, officers said cash taken by the youths in their operations, totals about $250. In addition, they found two rifles, two revolvers and two automatics.

Sheriff's Inspector Norman Wilson said the boys admitted burglaries in Orinda, Concord, Mill Valley, Martinez and San Francisco.

The youthful sextet is being held in the Contra Costa County Juvenile Hall where authorities are continuing their questioning.

To Form County Planning Group

Formation of a permanent citizens' organization on planning will be on the agenda of the Independent Citizens Committee on Planning Tuesday 8 p. m. in Room 208 at Acalanes High School.

All member organizations are urged to send representatives.

Acting Chairman W. H. Somerton said today that a permanent group is necessary in view of county progress toward development of a Master Plan. "Planning is a continuing development," he stressed.

Orinda Bandit Gets Five Years

Fred R. Hunter, the man who robbed the Reeve sisters January 31, began a San Quentin prison term of not less than five years Tuesday.

Hunter, an unemployed El Cerrito teamster, and father of two small children, was sentenced by Superior Judge Norman A. Gregg for holding up the Misses Gladys and Estelle Reeve, 225 Canon Drive.

He obtained $47.

Hunter had no statement to make when Judge Gregg asked if he wished to comment on a report recommending that probation be denied.

Question: Where to Move Bus Shelter?

The problem of where the bus-waiting shelter should be moved when construction of the Orinda Interchange portion of the freeway gets under way hinges on commuter parking space, Vice-chairman Ramsay Underwood told the Civic Affairs Committee Monday night at Orinda School.

The committee tossed the problem around in extended discussion and then referred it to the board of directors for reaction.

The "logical spot," Underwood said ,would be along the west side of Orinda Highway, just north of the limits of the construction job.

THERE IS A PARKING area there now ,on E.B.M.U.D. land. This area, about 300 feet long by 50 feet wide at the south end and about 100 feet wide at north end, was created by fill.

However, it will not be large enough to care for commuter needs, Underwood maintained. Also, there's the question of whether Greyhound Lines would agree to route their buses to go north to that point.

"At the suggestion of Albert E. Simmons, assistant district engineer of the State Division of Highways, I went to the State Public Utilities Commission and asked if the PUC would compel Greyhound to route their buses that way if we provided the area. The pickup spot must be off the freeway.

"They said they would, if a public hearing showed the necessity."

Horace Breed suggested, "Let's set our sights for a larger area at that spot."

Other business at the Civic Affairs meeting included:

1.—Endorsement OF the $1,350,000 countywide bond issue proposal for construction of a county office building in Richmond. Voters will decide at a special election May 12.

2.—Agreement that delegates would inform their groups of the availability of 6000 seedling trees, furnished by the State Forestry Division at the University of California at Davis. Ernest Rahmeyer reported on the tree nursery to be set up by Explorer Post 300 at Fire Station 2, through cooperation of the Orinda Fire Department. He asked for small donations from local organizations to offset expenses.

3.—Referral to Orindans, Inc., of a letter from Dr. Wilbert F. Thomas of Piedmont asking for support for his application to zone lot 42, at the southeast corner of Moraga Highway and Southwood Drive, to commercial.

Star-Chamber? It Would Hurt Orinda

An Editorial

WHEN IT COMES to sincere and effective work for the betterment of Orinda, the Orinda Association takes a back seat to nobody.

The Orinda Association comes as near to being a "city council" in an unincorporated area as one could wish.

Not only that, it has a "lower house," the Civic Affairs Committee, and an "upper house," the board of directors. The Civic Affairs Committee, consisting of delegates from improvement clubs and other organizations throughout Orinda, serves as a recommending body. The Board of Directors, democratically elected by the entire membership, acts on the recommendations.

Through the operation of Civic Affairs and the board, the Orinda Association has become an effective voice for the community, often succeeding in getting county officials to do things for Orinda.

AT PRESENT, efforts are under way to increase the cooperation of Civic Affairs and the board. It is hoped to accomplish this by changing the by-laws so that the chairman of the Civic Affairs Committee becomes a full-voting member of the board.

Such a change, it seems to us, would be definitely to the good.

However, in recent discussion on the goal of closer cooperation, there has been a hint that is disturbing—a hint of possible "star chamber" sessions, in which the board and Civic Affairs would get in a huddle and decide on "the score" in a controversial issue.

Such a suggestion was made by Frank Hart, Civic Affairs chairman, when he mentioned the current PG&E right-of-way squabble as an example of disagreement to be avoided.

It is heartening that Hart promptly explained that he did not have censorship of news in mind, and that Clinton Hallsted, immediate past chairman of Civic Affairs, assured reporters that closed sessions and barring of the press are not contemplated.

Nevertheless, the hint remains that "star chamber" sessions may be desired by some. Hart said he doesn't believe "in airing our dirty linen."

With all due respect to the energy and volunteer (unpaid) effort being concentrated on moves to increase the effectiveness of the Orinda Association, The SUN would like to point out a few facts:

1.—The Orinda Association, although not a tax-supported governmental body, is a public organization in that its proceedings vitally affect the welfare of Orindans.

2.—The job of the press is to report faithfully what happens at Orinda Association meetings and what the association is doing.

3.—Controversy or disagreements are news, as are agreements and harmonies. It is a misconception to think in terms of "dirty linen" or "clean linen." Any tendency to hush-hush deliberations or to issue publicity handouts instead of continuing the open relationship which has always existed between the association and the press is a tendency which, if carried through, would defeat the essential purpose of the organization—the betterment of Orinda.

4.—The PG&E controversy wasn't created by the press. The press reported it. That is the business of a newspaper—to report news.

THE SUN HAS for some time campaigned against secret meetings. Its articles on closed meetings formerly held by the Central Contra Costa Sanitary District Board stirred a lot of interest and helped end such proceedings.

Even though these articles were one of the reasons why The SUN recently won Second Place Award in the statewide contest conducted by the California Newspaper Publishers Association, for Outstanding Disinterested Community Service, we feel they were our duty rather than a "feather in our cap."

We sincerely hope that the Orinda Association is not toying with the idea of "star chamber" sessions, barring of the press, or censorship of the news.

There is no excuse for that procedure in governmental bodies. And there is no good reason for it in an organization as important as the Orinda Association, with its public responsibility.

We are confident that closer cooperation between the Civic Affairs Committee and the Orinda Association Board will result in greater effectiveness than ever for the organization. And The SUN pledges itself to help achieve that goal by continuing conscientiously to perform its job—reporting the news.

Vol. XI, No. 1: The SUN's Cake Has 10 Candles

That means we're 10 years old and are starting on our 11th year. Please ,somebody, blow out the candles on the birthday cake, while we make our little speech:

The SUN is proud of and grateful for the community support it has received. We're happy that so many people here read The SUN. Without such support, we wouldn't be able to make this birthday speech.

We pledge to continue our best efforts to improve the paper and increase its news coverage. Toward that end, we ask your continued cooperation.

FCDA Head Visits Defense School At St. Mary's

Val Peterson, former governor of Nebraska and recently appointed administrator of the Federal Civil Defense Administration visited the Western Technical Training School at St. Mary's College, Moraga, yesterday afternoon.

He conferred with Dr. B. Frank Gillette, director of the civil defense training school, and members of the staff, had lunch on the college campus and observed final field exercises of a civil defense course, in which firemen "did their stuff" at fires which had been set off inside concrete test buildings.

Peterson's visit was part of a Western trip he is making, following his attendance at the atomic bomb test Tuesday at Yucca Flat, 65 miles north of Las Vegas, Nevada.

The Western Technical Training School is one of only two such schools under the FCDA. The other is just outside of Washington, D. C. Dr. Gillette, who lives at 2151 Carol Road, Walnut Creek, has been director since last May.

Next week the Third Western Women's Training Conference at the school will get under way on Monday. Mrs. Thalia S. Woods, director of women's participation for FCDA, will open the conference.

Form Committee To Push County Bond Proposal

A Citizens' County Building Committee has been formed to work for voters approval of the $1,350,000 bond issue proposal for a county office building in Richmond.

Edward M. Larmer of Lafayette heads the 80-man committee. The election is set for May 15.

Committee officers besides Larmer are Albert W. Flaherty, Antioch, vice-chairman; Elo Travalini, Richmond, treasurer, and Mrs. Barbara Schultz, Martinez, secretary.

Larmer said a county office building will be built "because it must be, regardless of cost," but he said the bond issue method will save the taxpayers $300,000.

"The county faces an absolute requirement of providing a county courts and office building in Richmond to serve 170,000 residents," Larmer said.

"This is really a must job — one we cannot escape."

The committee said the proposal was on the November ballot and got a 54 per cent favorable vote but lacked the two-thirds majority required.

Therapy Center's Permit OK'd by Planning Board

The Mt. Diablo Therapy Center's land use permit application was approved Tuesday by the County Planning Commission.

The four-and-a-half-acre site is located on the south side of Bancroft Road between Mayhew Way and Hookston Road in the Fair Oaks area.

THE APPLICATION will go before the County Board of Supervisors Tuesday for final action.

At Tuesday's meeting, Edmund S. Barnett, president of the center's board of directors, presented a letter from the Fair Oaks Homes Association board favoring the move.

IN ADDITION, he submitted a petition signed by 177 people stating that approval of the request would be in the best interests of the area.

Earlier, Barnett had said the center hoped to complete the new structure by the end of the year. At present, no specific plans have been drawn up, and probably won't be until after the center's fund drive, he said.

Working on tentative plans for the new building is the organization's building committee headed by Alex Morris.

ALTHOUGH NOTHING will be definite until funds are available, Barnett guessed the structure might cost in the neighborhood of $45,000 and contain about 3500 square feet.

The building would comply with provisions of the Reilly Act — the earthquake - proofing legislation governing construction of public schools.

Acalanes Parents Honor Faculty At Annul Dinner

More than 100 persans attended a St. Patrick's dinner given recently by the executive board of the Acalanes Parents' Club for faculty members and their families.

President Fred Knobel presided with Mrs. Don Krotz, program chairman. Mrs. H. E. Eggerts was in charge of the dinner assisted by board members and their husbands and wives.

Entertainment included the songs of Irish Tenor Wes Smith, accompanied by Mrs. T. J. Fahey at the piano. A quartet composed of Joe Conley, Vic Johnson, Lance Bardin and Homer Fey, presented a humorous skit.

Board members who entertained with a pantomine of Irish sayings were Mrs. Edward Rowland, Principal Stanley Walgreen, Mrs. Homey Fey, Mrs. H. T. Dunham, Mrs. John Fry and Mrs. G. Albert Wahl. A duet was sung by Knobel and Mrs. Krotz.

Mrs. R. C. McBride, past president, awarded prizes to teachers' wives competing in a signature contest. Winners were Mrs. Bob Stevens, first, and Mrs. Richard Hansen, second. The booby prize, a paper cap, was won by Mrs. Alec Winchester.

Community singing was led by Richard Hansen.

Jaycees Plan Meet, Continue Safety Campaign

The progress of the "Lite-a-Bumper" campaign will be reported to members of the Mt. Diablo Area Junior Chamber of Commerce at their meeting at El Nido Restaurant in Lafayette Monday at 8 p.m.

The "Lite-a-Bumper" Drive will stop in the Broadway Shopping Center in Walnut Creek tomorrow on the second round of local communities. The Junior Chamber reports that more than 1000 cars have been equipped with the reflecting tape since the drive to cut down rear-end collisions began.

Members of the group will be on hand to help customers install the tape on their bumpers.

The campaign will move to Lafayette next week, and then to Orinda the following week.

All young men between the ages of 21 and 35 are invited to attend the chamber meeting Monday evening. The speaker will be Bud Foster, sports announcer, who will comment on films of the San Francisco 49'ers 1952 football season.

Absurdia Tickets Going on Sale

Tickets for "Absurdia In Suburbia IV," the Orinda Mothers Club production to be staged April 30 and May 1-2 at Acalanes High School Auditorium, go on sale this weekend.

Those interested in getting their orders in early may contact Ruth Henry at Orinda 2852 or Gladys Hamburg at Orinda 8575. They have more than 30 neighborhood salesmen working under them and will contact the closest ticket seller.

There will be an advantage in purchasing ducats early this year, according to Business Manager Carole Harrison. She will not open ticket booths at the auditorium until a half-hour before curtain time, so that those who already have their tickets get first chance at the choice seats.

Lloyd Hecathorn, in charge of concessions, has issued a call for assistance. Anyone interested in selling concessions during the three-day run may contact him at Orinda 8847.

MRS. WILLIAM GILMORE, the show co-chairman, has announced that the production is completely cast, except for several openings — male and female — for chorus singing.

She said that, because of Boy Scout activities at the Orinda School Auditorium Monday, there will be a shift in rehearsal schedules next week.

THE SINGING PRACTICE will take place as usual at the auditorium 8 p.m. Tuesday. Waltz and promenade dancers will meet at Mrs. Gilmore's home 8 p.m. Monday, while she will host the hula dancers on Wednesday.

Dancing couples will rehearse at the school Wednesday night at 8 o'clock.

'It Droppeth as The Gentle Rains From Heaven' —

We found the weather man seated in front of his fireplace, glumly looking at the pots and pans scattered around his living room floor.

"What are all the utensils doing in here?" we asked.

"My roof leaks," he replied, "and since I forecast fair weather. I didn't bother to fix the holes. But please don't talk so loud — my wife has given me enough trouble about it a sit is.

It seemed to be a rather sore point with him, so we cagily asked him how much rain had fallen this week. He went over and lookde at a ruler stuck in one of the pots and announced gloomily, ".84 inches."

Feeling that perhaps moodiness was an occupational hazard of weather forecasting, we didn't asck the weatherman about the temperatures, but looked at the thermometer on the wall ourselves. It said that the high for the period between March 12 and 18 was the 13th, with a reading of 59 degrees, and the low was the 14th, with 28 degrees.

Anyway, the weatherman's flowers are growing.

Tanagers to Meet At Mrs. Juchter's

Tanager Unit of Mt. Diablo Therapy Center will hold a board meeting Tuesday at 10 a.m. at the home of Mrs. Frank Juchter of 130 Camino Don Miguel.

The Tanagers will hold their regular evening meeting Wednesday at 8 at the home of Mrs. James Seaman of 19 St. James Court. Co-hostesses will be Mrs. Alex Morris, Mrs. Robert Bigler and Mrs. Burton Kohler.

Orinda Democrats Hold Annual Meet

The annual membership meeting of the Orinda Democrats was held March 11 at Orinda Community Church.

Fred Tarp, Cyril Atkinson and Helen Hill each gave a brief report on the past history of the Orinda Democrats. A report was made on future plans for Council meetings between various Democratic clubs in the county, and it was pointed out that the State Central Committee will soon publish a newspaper which will be mailed to interested individuals.

THE CONSTITUTION and by-laws as adopted earlier were modified so as to secure final chartering by the County Central Democratic Committee.

The first Wednesday of the month was designated as the monthly meeting date. Next meeting will be held April 1 at Orinda Community Church at 8 p.m.

THE FOLLOWING officers were elected for the coming year:

Fred Tarp, chairman; Cyril Atkinson, vice-chairman; Ruth Thurston, corresponding secretary; John Glascock, recording secretary; Forest Hill, treasurer.

Paul Pollaczek was chosen representative to Council.

Future program plans were discussed, with emphasis placed on keeping informed on local issues and candidates for office.

Young GOP To Meet Thursday

Ed Osgood of San Francisco, State Young Republican president, will speak to Orinda Young Republicans Thursday, 8 p.m., at the home of Bill Anderson of 23 Hall Drive.

Osgood, active in organizing new groups of Young Republicans throughout the state, will speak on the need for Young Republicans in the Republican Party. He recently returned from Los Angeles, where he met with Southern California Young Republican leaders.

The California Young Republicans have introduced a resolution calling for a direct presidential primary in the state. Osgood feels everyone should have the privilege of voting directly for his own choice.

Anyone interested in the organization's activities is invited to attend the meeting.

Lull Comes After Big Rummage Sale

No general monthly meeting of the Women's Auxiliary of St. Stephen's Episcopal Church will be held during March, according to Mrs. Arthur Johnson, president.

Preparations for the very successful rummage sale conducted early this week by the Women's Auxiliary necessitated employment of every willing hand and a good portion of all available energy, and there has been a great demand for a leisurely lull between events.

PLANS HAVE ALREADY gone forward, however, for the April meeting which will be held at the home of Mrs. M. M. Garrett of Happy Valley Road, Lafayette, on the customary fourth Thursday of the month.

Mrs. William Sparling, president of the Auxiliary last year, will lead the Worship Workshop at the regional meeting of the Women's Auxiliary of the Diocese of California in the Convocation of Oakland on Tuesday at All Soul's Church in Berkeley.

THE ASSEMBLY will convene at 1:30 p.m. for dessert, and will continue through the afternoon in lecture and study sessions.

After dinner the delegates will meet again at 7:30 for further discussion in the Workshop program.

Sauer Answers Road Questions

Village? If not, can it be widened to permit diagonal parking?

"Use the same procedure as suggested before," commented Sauer. "Ask the supervisors to make a survey and we'll make recommendations."

FROM THIS POINT on the procedure for getting action was exactly as outlined. Sauer answered all questions by noting that if a request were sent to the supervisors, then the county would be glad to help in any way possible.

Here are some of the questions answered that way:

CAN WE GET stop signs at both ends of the alley between Moraga Highway and Davis Road? Can we have it zoned no parking, with a white line down the middle? Can we have loading zones for commercial vehicles there?

When the new by-pass is constructed, we will have parking problems. If we can get a parcel of land opposite the Christian Science Church on the San Pablo Dam Road from the water company, will the county help build a parking lot there?

WHAT WILL the Richmond-San Rafael bridge do to county traffic?

Sauer said he did not know whether traffic would be routed through the San Pablo Dam Road to Orinda, then t oWalnut Creek, or whether it would go from Richmond along the Arnold Industrial Highway to Pacheco. He said the chamber would have ample opportunity to discuss it with the county, as it was at least two years away. A survey is now being conducted.

MANY RESIDENTS were concerned with the landslides occurring in the area. Sauer pointed out that the county has recently hired a soils engineer who is surveying the situation.

He concluded by stating that the road from Las Vegas area to Charles Hill would be completed as soon as possible—as soon as more funds are available.

Third Graders Learn of Indian Life

"All Indians lived alike." This was the opinion of Mrs. Audrey Dochterman's third grade class as they started their Indian study at Orinda School.

Now, they not only know that Indian life varied, but also why. It developed according to the demands imposed by geographical regions in which the various tribes found themselves. These regions the students have located on a map of the United States.

SCHOOL EXPERIENCE has taught them this much. In addition, it has prepared the children for developing constructive attitudes toward their nation and world.

Knowing their country is composed of several distinct sections, each with its unique requirements on the lives of its early inhabitants, they are ready to understand not only the varied life of people in this country today, but also of the peoples of the world — ready to understand and appreciate.

MANY ACTIVITIES, not reading and discussing alone, increased their interest. Play, through which the teacher can discover misconceptions and correct them, was provided through dramatizing stories and by using a branch and burlap tepee. Sioux and Pawnee designs painted on the tepee by the children made it real.

The study of Indian designs and homes showed the children differences in Indian life in response to environment. So did other activities, such as the making of clay bowls, weaving reed trays and baskets and yarn pocketbooks.

Linda Sears did excellent work in Indian bead weaving. Displays helped. Donald Flenner made a Hopi Indian Pueblo of clay. Roger Roos cast a set of plaster of Paris Indians for the sand table and brought in copper plaques of Indian design. Sharolyn Sage added a totem pole. Jay Jacbus made one, too.

READING INCLUDED a Navajo school book as well as the Junior Brittanica and various text, library, story, poetry and song books.

Writing and art pictures synthesized all information. Each child made a notebook of the group's and his own stories about Indian life, illustrated by himself. This information included the various tribes across the country, the history of the Plains Indians through Custer's Last Stand, Indian reservations today and English words of Indian origin.

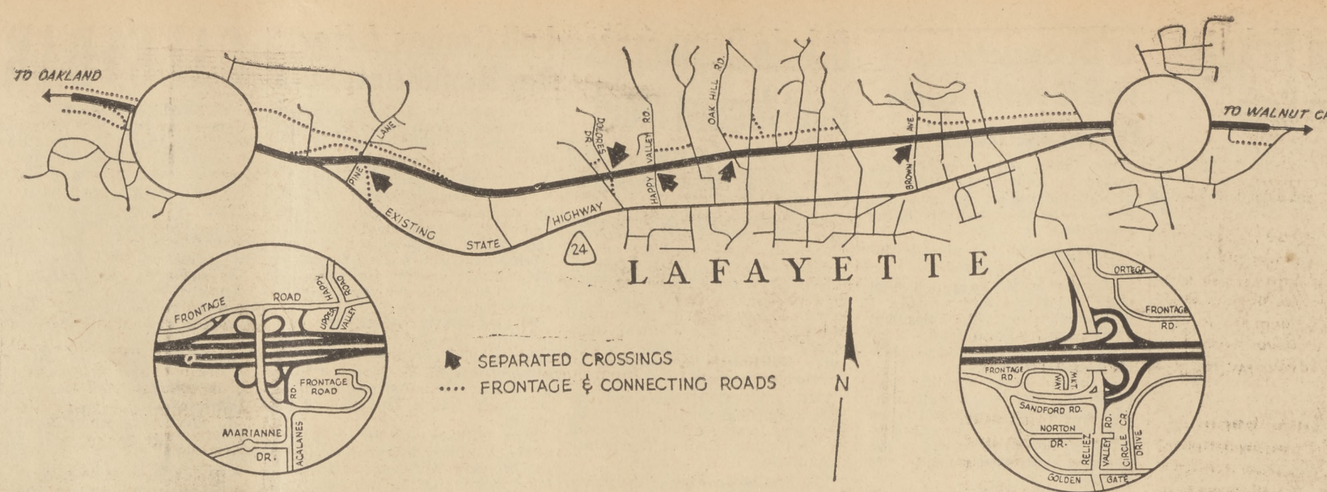
After graduation, the pilots are qualified to instruct other pilots, to fly in "heavy" weather to furnish needed supplies by air, or engage in actual combat.



THIS MAP OF LAFAYETTE FREEWAY, as proposed by the State Division of Highways, gives you an overall picture of the contemplated project. The circular inserts depict the plans for traffic interchanges—a four-leaf cloverleaf approach in the vicinity of Acalanes Road and a two-leaf cloverleaf approach in the vicinity of Pleasant Hill Road. A braided intersection with a separation structure is planned at a location near Pine Lane, to provide a connection for westbound traffic from the present state highway. Other grade separations are contemplated at crossings of Dolores Drive, Happy Valley Road, Oak Hill Road, Brown Ave.

Meet Next Friday

The Second Milers of Lafayette Community Methodist Church will hold a regular meeting and potluck supper next Friday at 6:30 p.m. at the church. Recreation and installation of officers will follow the supper.

'How Do You Like Yourself?' Query of Sunday Sermon

At both the 8:30 and the 11 a.m. worship services Sundays at Lafayette Comumnity Methodist Church the sermon will be "How Do You Like Yourself?"

Bishop George A. Miller and Rev. Harry E. Shaner say:

"When we meet a friend on the street we many times say, 'How are you today?' A mere greeting, that has grown up because of our interest in other people. A better greeting might be, 'How are you getting along with yourself,' or 'How do you like yourself?' "

Sunday evening at 7 Dr. George Colliver from the College of the Pacific will deliver his fifth lecture on "The Life of Jesus."

GO TO CHURCH SUNDAY

Church Schedules Varied Program For Lent Season

The Lenten program of Orinda Community Church includes a number of events during the period close to Easter.

Among them are two special Palm Sunday morning services on March 29, an evening presentation of "The Seven Last Words of Christ" by Theodore Dubois on the same evening, a candle-light Communion Service and reception of new members on April 2, a community Good Friday observance in cooperation with St. Stephen's Episcopal Church, a double Easter morning schedule of twin services at the Orinda Theater and an Easter Sunrise Service conducted by the Pilgrim Fellowship.

THIS SUNDAY there will again be two morning worship hours, at 9:30 and 11 a.m., with sessions of the Sunday school held at the same times.

"Our One Creative Act" is the topic of the address to be given in the adult session at the earlier service by Rev. Godfrey Matthews.

At the hour which follows, the chapel choir will be assisting with the incidental choral music and anthem, while the sermon by the Rev. Fred Morrow, minister, will use the theme, "Stand Upon Your Feet."

E. D. HOWE superintends the worship and instruction of the church Sunday school departments, which use the graded system and include the ages from three (nursery) to 103.

C. R. Fowler, a senior at the Pacific School of Religion in Berkeley, assists in the church services and in the several activities of high school age young people.

The high school choir is directed by Mrs. T. J. Fahay, the Junior and Chapel Choirs by Margaret Popovich. Organists are Daniel Popovich and Dorothy Turk.

The Community Church is the agency of all cooperating denominations in the Orinda area, and offers a cordial welcome to all persons in search of a church home.

By shopping at home you not only save time and money. You're also patronizing merchants who share your interest in the community.

Family Prayer Service Set

In the diversified Lenten program outlined by St. Stephen's Episcopal Church, the Rev. Charles M. Hill will conduct family evening prayer Sunday at 5 p.m. in the Orinda Community Church building.

St. Stephen's Choir will sing as offertory anthem, "Were You There When They Crucified My Lord?" in an arrangement by Carlyle Duncan. Mrs. T. J. Fahay, choirmaster and organist, will play "Lenten Prelude," composed in the 18th Century by Jonathon Battishill, and "Postlude in B Flat, Opus 368, No. 8" by Volckmar.

Wednesday evening services during Lent will continue, with Rev. Hill resuming his duties as leader.

Last Wednesday, members of St. Stephen's were led by the Rev. William M. Fay, who spent some months in Orinda as temporary vicar of this church.

The congregation was delighted to learn of the recent birth of the Fay's first child, James Stephen, on February 28, and was touched by the fact that the infant was given his second name in affection for the Orinda mission.

Chapman Now Ensign

Richard K. Chapman of 416 Camino Sobrante was among the 840 enlisted men who traded their white hats for the gold trimmed caps of commissioned ensigns as the Navy's only Officer Candidate School graduated its ninth and largest class at Newport, R.I., recently.

Over 80 at First Service of New Lutheran Church

Initial service of the Shepherd of the Valley Lutheran Church was held Sunday morning at the church building at Orchard Road and Moraga Highway, Orinda. More than 80 persons attended.

Edward R. Andersen, student pastor, discussed "What a Christian Believes" in his sermon.

THIS SUNDAY, Sunday school and family worship will be held at 9:30 a.m. Church worship service will be held at 11 a.m. Andersen will speak on "Man Needs God."

A women's group will be organized at a meeting at the church building Wednesday night at 8 o'clock.

Parking space, financial support and the church program will be discussed by the Church Council when it meets next Friday, 8 p.m., at the church. Council members are B. G. Buzzini, H. Engman, E. S. Heckathorn, T. R. Kling, L. Ludwig, R. McClanahan, L. Odenthal, H. E. Rote and J. R. Smith.

THE CHURCH BUILDING was readied for the first service in almost lightning-time by a crew of men and women volunteers.

The former occupants of the building moved out at 9 a.m. Saturday. Between then and 11 a.m. Sunday the interior of the former residence was made suitable for church services, a parking area was laid out and a cross was erected atop the building.

Directors of Home

Robert Raskob of 48 Charles Hill Road, Orinda, and John P. O'Shea of Upper Happy Valley Road, Lafayette, were recently elected to serve two years on the Board of Directors of Hanna Boys' Center, a home for underprivileged boys in Sonoma.

Canyon Callings . . .

CANYON COMMUNITY CLUB, which met March 11 at Canyon School, reported its mystery auction a huge success. Meetings henceforth will be held on the third Wednesday of the month.

Mrs. Robert O'Neil, chairman for the Canyon Red Cross Drive, reported that presentation of a Red Cross membership card would entitle a family to see a show which the children of the community will put on early in April for the benefit of the Red Cross.

Virginia Menge gave a report of a meeting at which possible use of watershed land for recreational purposes was explained.

The club voted to purchase athletic shirts imprinted with the school name and emblem for upper grade Canyon School students.

Mothers were invited to Easter programs to be held by each of the religious classes.

Canyon Boy Scouts and Camp Fire Girls, with leaders, enjoyed last weekend at Yosemite. They reported no snow on the floor of the valley, but excellent tobogganing at Badger Pass.

RICHARD KNIPE broke in his new car on a jaunt to Palm Springs for a three-day holiday recently. While there he dated Joy Hoffman, also vacationing at the desert resort. Joy, a former Canyon girl, is now working as a registered nurse in a Pacific Palisades hospital.

Mrs. Robert O'Neil returned Tuesday from a week's stay in Southern California. She drove a car to Arlington for an uncle, then went on to visit her father in San Diego. Her return trip was by train.

John Jenks should have managed with that old tire and tube on his spare — now he'll have to until he can replace the new ones which were stolen from his car parked just off Pinehurst Road.

Henry Johnson, a University of California senior, completed an assignment when he gave a lecture on and a conducted tour through Canyon with fellow students last Saturday.

The Panther Patrol of Troop 212 are to be commended on their "good deed for the day" for last Tuesday when they replaced globes on the Burpee Trail — lights broken by some boys who do not do a good deed every day. The patrol has also been working on the field at Canyon School in preparation for a track meet to be held in May in which several of the smaller Contra Costa County schools will take part.

THOSE WHITE LINES being painted on the surface of the school court yard are for new games the children will learn during play time. There is a shuffle-board court, a hop-scotch diagram, a bowling alley and a four square volley ball court.

Speaking of squares, the eighth graders have been working on mathematical magic squares, much to the surprise of Principal Masker's former professor in math., who says his college students are doing the same thing. Many Canyonites are wondering about that orange line painted on their garbage cans. Those whose cans were unmarked found out that they had forgotten to register for garbage service when their garbage was not picked up last Thursday morning. Incidentally that one-man cleanup committee seen working in the vicinity of the school collection center was Ralph Moore.

KID KWIP: Mother was asked by Sissy to sing the "Ida" song so that she, Sissy, could show off the new tap dance step learned at dancing school. Mother obliged with, "I-da, sweet as apple ci-dah" — "No, no, interrupted Sissy with disgust, "it goes like this:" and she sang, "If I'da knowed you wuz comin', I'da baked a cake."

Pick a Flattering Maternity Dress

By TOLLY

Pregnancy can be the prettiest period of your life if you choose your maternity wardrobe with wisdom. The Expectation Shop at 1419 Broadway in Walnut Creek makes the following suggestions in choosing your wardrobe.

Buy maternity clothes early in your pregnancy. It is poor economy to split the seams of your regular clothes by postponing the purchase of your regular maternity wardrobe. Choose styles similar to those you wear regularly. Maternity clothes follow today's fashion trend.

IN SELECTING a wardrobe, a suit is most essential. The fabric may be cotton, rayon, faille or wool. For summer wear there are ennumerable possibilities for changes, as even in maternity wear there are mix and match outfits.

Shorts, slacks, pedal pushers, skirts and jackets will give you as many changes as you need and are relatively inexpensive.

LINGERIE, including slips, panties, girdles, bras and garter belts are an essential part of your wardrobe.

The sales staff at the Expectation Shop will be most helpful in assisting the expectant mothers in coordinating their wardrobe.

Be sure to keep yourself looking nice. Take time to become a beautiful wife and it will be easy to become a beautiful mother.

Spring Jewelry Dominated by Coronation Motif

The June Coronation of England's Queen Elizabeth, with all the pomp and circumstance it inspires, has had an important influence on new Spring jewelry here in America.

The look of royalty, complete with crowns, lions and Coronation motifs, dominates the picture for Spring, in exciting replicas of old court jewelry, Victorian designs, and "royal" colors.

Large pins are featured in many popular stylized crown patterns. The British Lion and coat-of-arms motifs may be studded with precious-looking jewels.

THE CORONATION THEME inspires many of this Spring's fashions. Here its influence is seen on a cap sleeve linen-like blouse with heraldic crown pin and buttons.

Blouses Add to Ensemble Effect

With more and more fashion emphasis being put on the ensemble look for Spring, the newest blouses are designed to match and mingle in fresh style.

The suit blouse takes a new lease on life with the cardigan neckline which gives a narrow line of color at the collar of the suit. Sleeveless cuts, set-in sleeves, or easy dolmans are also featured as bulk-less fashions for wear under suits.

And making a pretty appearance under a wide variety of jacket blouses is the jewel neckline blouse, newly dressed up with inserts of lace, novelty buttoned fronts or fresh embroidery trim.

Junior Fashions Trim, Graceful

Junior fashions this Spring reflect the general trend to slimness and graceful understatement, but retain the crisp, young flair that so smartly distinguishes them from other size ranges.

The trim junior figure is especially suited to the slender lines of the newest sheath dresses and casually styled slender coats, suits and dresses. Reed-slim though these fashions may be, a look of femininity is always retained through a simple, unexaggerated interpretation of the prevailing mode.

The full skirt is another flattering, meant-for-a-junior fashion that makes news this season with its look of restrained width.

Although the paper-doll look of shirred-at-the-waist skirts is out this season, the fashion for petticoats is still a favorite for juniors. The full-skirted look is expressed with a more controlled approach to width, and with emphasis on spaced pleats, back or side draping or unpressed pleats.

It's Bright Look In Men's Styles

The "lighter, brighter look" keynotes men's styles for Spring.

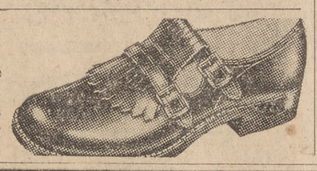
Expressed both in lighter, brighter colors and in fabrics greatly reduced in bulk, this trend is directly in line with the growing popularity of the slimmer, narrowed silhouette in suits, topcoats and sports jackets.

Mr. Man's spirits get a Spring-tonic from his change to lighter colors. In surface texture interest, "the nubby, slubby look" looms large in the Spring spotlight.

Cal Mothers Club To Meet Wednesday

The University of California Mothers' Club will meet Wednesday in the Twentieth Century Club rooms in Berkeley.

At 2 p.m. Mrs. Don Court, a member, will review "Snips and Snails," a comedy by Louise Baker.



THORN'S SHOES of Lafayette displays this practical two strap school shoe with a detachable Kittie tongue which comes in red or natural Elk with Acrobat's "bonded soles" — guaranteed for 100 days of wear.

Bonnets, Sailors Lead Trend in Spring Millinery

Spring millinery fashions for 1953 have a charm which no feminine heart can resist. Dainty little shapes that curve and cling, or spreading parasol brims that cast flattering shadows, they all have a light-headed look that is definitely appearing.

The bonnet and the sailor are again at the head of fashion's list. The most wearable bonnets have curving, face-framing brims that are angled for profile-flattery.

The bell-shaped cloche in its Spring variation is shallower and has a softer, irregular brim. Little cap shapes have high-flying feathers or flowers, the pillbox is scalloped or dimpled, or cuffed with a tiny rolled brim, and wide-brimmed hats share the trend to less crown and gentler brims.

Texture is predominant in Spring straws and fabrics, particularly the deep, soft, mossy textures achieved by combining transparent and translucent straws.

SALLY ANN SUTTON'S white leather shoes are Junior Sandler's of Boston from Sutton's Shoe Shoppe in Lafayette. Her dress is a nylon dotted Swiss Terry Trix, from Shoo-Time in Lafayette.

Fashion Stresses The 'Slim Look'

Fashion will follow the straight and narrow path this Spring, with countless variations of the "slim look" carried out in coats, suits, dresses, ensembles and even evening wear.

Elegant and new-looking, the elongated line of Fashion calls for a whole new approach to the woman's wardrobe, as well as her important accessories.

EMPHASIS IS ON the wider shoulder line, narrowing to a confined hemline, such as in the newest coats and suits.

The box suit, an extremely important fashion for Spring, carries out the new line, with emphasis on the jacket rather than the skirt.

FROTHY, FEMININE blouses also will start as light touches under these suit fashions, especially with the cardigan-styled jackets.

The stole emerges as top fashion this Spring, either as a separate accessory, incorporated into the ensemble or suggested by means of draping and stitching at the shoulder.

Dresses are soft and fluid, in rich fabrics that drape well. The empire waistline still figures as an important influence, but skirts are generally on the slim side.

THE ALL-CALF, custom-styled moccasin loafer blends the comfort of a standard moccasin with the "tailored" effect of built-up heels.

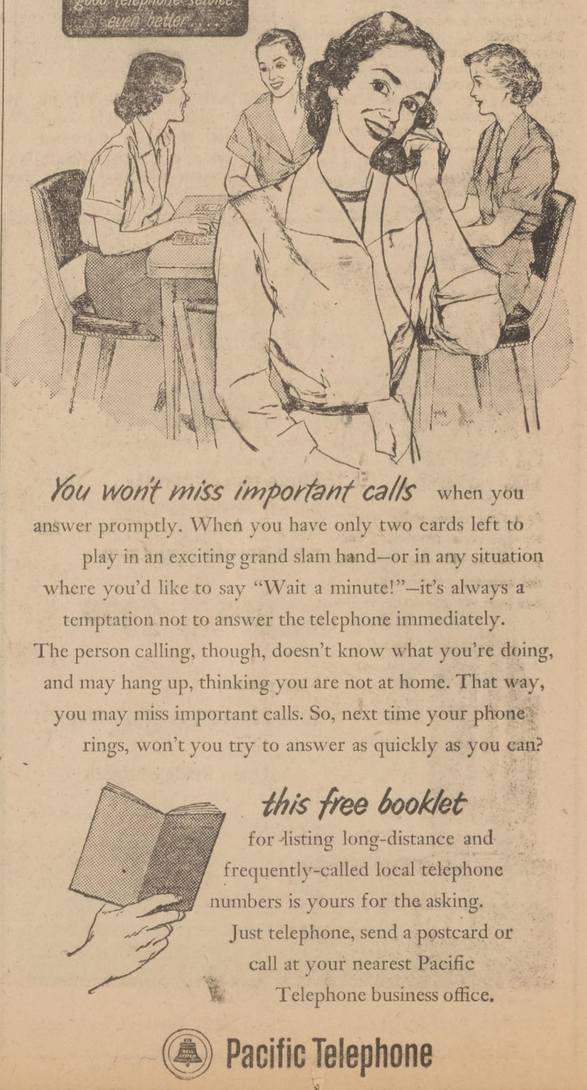
How to make good telephone service even better



You won't miss important calls when you answer promptly. When you have only two cards left to play in an exciting grand slam hand—or in any situation where you'd like to say "Wait a minute!"—it's always a temptation not to answer the telephone immediately. The person calling, though, doesn't know what you're doing, and may hang up, thinking you are not at home. That way, you may miss important calls. So, next time your phone rings, won't you try to answer as quickly as you can?

this free booklet for listing long-distance and frequently-called local telephone numbers is yours for the asking. Just telephone, send a postcard or call at your nearest Pacific Telephone business office.

Colonial Ranch Style Home To Be Shown at Heidi Tour

White brick and board and batten are combined in the exterior of the rambling Colonial ranch style home of the W. D. McNevins family. This is one of the five magnificent homes in Happy Valley to be open May 27. when Heidi Chapter of Children's Home Society holds its Spring house tour.

Tickets are $1.50 each and available from any Heidi member. Mrs. J. A. McCormick, phone Lafayette 2075 is ticket chairman. The homes will be held open from 11:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. with tea being served at the last home of the tour, that of Mrs. Jack Abbott. Other homes to be shown are those of Kenneth Shipp, Richard Dailey and Robert Bridges.

The den and living room open onto a family patio by French doors. A clever bar arrangement with hunt scenes as decoration separates the den and living room. The living room is decorated in cool greens with accents of gold and yellow. Large windows and French doors open off of the living room onto a bricked terrace, garden and large swimming pool. Lovely beams grace the ceiling and wall-to-wall carpeting is in a slightly darker green than the walls and ceiling. At the far end of the living room one walks up a few steps into the hall off of which are three bedrooms.

ONE OF THESE is decorated in yellow and white with touches of green. The master bedroom has it's own separate dressing room and bath with the colors here light blue and gold. A Dutch door opens from the master bedroom to the terrace. At the opposite end of the hall another Dutch door opens into the family patio.

Again at the left of the entry is the dining room and kitchen wing of the home. Panelled in knotty pine, with yellow and brown counters, the kitchen overlooks the terrace, garden and pool. Separated by a breezeway from the kitchen and service room are showers and dressing rooms for use of bathers. Another breezeway separates these from the maid's quarters, storerooms and garages.

All proceeds from this Heidi house tour will go to aid Children's Home Society in the proper placement of children available for adoption. Anyone interested in further information about Heidi or the tour may contact Mrs. W .A. Siebert, House Tour Chairman, phone Orinda 8846; or the president, Mrs. J. W. Barnette, phone Orinda 8176.

COAST COUNTIES GAS AND ELECTRIC COMPANY

"NATURAL GAS IS THE NATION'S FASTEST GROWING MAJOR INDUSTRY"

About our happy Country Folks

By EDITH BOLMAN

Has anybody seen my kitty?
Has anybody seen my cat?
He's the cutest little thing
And his name is Honey Jing
And I'm wondering where he's AT!

OBVIOUSLY OUR SIN is syntax but inasmuch as there is no tax on syn we would like to mention non-syntactically that there is a lady in town who has lost her dog and would like to know where it is AT

It happened thusly: Mr. and Mrs. William Houston entertained last Saturday night with a buffet supper for the Kenneth Shipps, who have just returned from Palm Springs. The party was delightful and everybody had a good time, as evidenced by the fact that the post-digestive period was dominated by piano playing and close vocal harmony.

Then the guests went home and the Houstons noticed—dog-gone. A charming little blonde cocker named Lady Windemere with a green collar. If you know of her whereabouts the Houstons would be most appreciative.

I SHOT AN ARROW into the air. It came to earth I know not where. I lose more darned arrows that way!

Which, for some obscure reason, reminds us of the Orinda Branch Fashion Show to be held Tuesday at Orinda Country Club, because anybody who takes a shot at that just can't miss.

The clothes from Joseph Magnin are lush, lushier and lushiest, and the lunch is always a dandy, so, if you have been hiding under the bed for some reason and have not been contacted for tickets, quickly call Mrs. Ernest Kahl at Orinda 7321 on the off chance that there are some left. Or, as Mrs. Paul Demeter ,chairman, points out, you can call Mrs. Herman Eickmeyer, Orinda 8476; Mrs. Ted Beckett, Orinda 2061, or Mrs. Thomas McGuire, Lafayette 2889.

THE LINDSEY SPIGHTS ARE HOME from a tour to and through Oregon, where they visited their son in college.

In the back of the car, on their return, was an excellent specimen of a whistling goose (whatever that is) which seemed like a good idea for an Easter dinner, but not so — it is to be stuffed, not oven style but taxidermist style, because son Spight is interested in such things these days, as he is studying fish and game courses at the university.

Mark DeWitt, baby son of Mr. and Mrs. Clinton DeWitt, was christened at St. Stephen's Church by the Rev. Charles Hill. Afterward there was a small reception for family and godparents Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Kahl and Dr. and Mrs. Paul Slattery.

NEW IDEA FOR SKIERS—distribution of labor according to talent. In other words, the William Gilmores, plus Michael, Carol, Pat and Tommy; the Jack Rileys, plus Ann, Dode and Johnny, and the L. P. Odenthals, plus poor lone Joyce, went to the Gilmores' cabin at Edelweiss and had an arrangement whereby they divided the purchasing and preparation of food into three equal parts.

But you know how those things go—always a little swapping going on, so Mrs. Odenthal, who doesn't like to cook, handed her purchases over to Mrs. Gilmore, who prepared same and the "retribution" was that Mrs. Odenthal cleaned the vegetables and washed the dishes.

MR. AND MRS. AL SCOLLARD are home from New Orleans (where they ran into the Walter Boysens and Joseph Dietrichs), Jamaica, Curacao, La Guira, Caracas, San Juan and Havana.

Their ship, the Italia, had an Italian crew and German stewards, so that no one knew what anyone was talking about. However, what with three swimming pools, magnificent music and entertainment, it didn't make much difference.

At one point the swells were 50 feet high, and for a day or so nobody cared about pools, entertainment or, particularly food. But the sea calmed down and things were sufficiently hunky-dory by the time they reached Curacao that they were able to buy lovely Delft, and Royal Doulton china, perfume and Swiss musical clocks.

IF YOU CAN'T FIGURE OUT the behindwards or the beforewards of your new dress, think nothing of it—it is the style.

If you want to wear your skirt wrong side out you will still be acceptable in the nicest circles because it is being done this year.

Explanation—Mr. and Mrs. John Ogden's new Tween Togs Shop in the Village has an intriguing collection of feminine fashions for ladies in the pre-teen or early teen era and the aformentioned models in Everglaze cotton are wearable just every which way. Also, there are ruffled fineries and elegant fripperies.

In the rear of the store—the inner sanctum—is the hobby section, where craft materials for leather, bead, clay, paint and model materials may be purchased. A lobby for a hobby artist. Congratulations, Mr. and Mrs. Ogden for putting in a needed shop.

SPONSORS FOR THE RECENT DIABLO COTILLION were the officers— Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Abbott, Mr. and Mrs. Ramsay Underwood, Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Dahlgren, Mr. and Mrs. Donald MacCean and Messrs. and Mesdames William Boyd, Malcolm Gompertz, Dana Hamlin, Bruce Howard, Duncan Knudsen, Quentin Reynolds and Charles Rodier and Dr. and Mrs. Robert Pinger.

Home from a wonderful ski trip to Switzerland is Mrs. James Sharp. The last laps from Paris, to New York, to Boston and across the country were speedy and eventful, but now she has landed safely in the lap of Orinda—so golfers beware!

Got a dirty car? As a matter of fact, we always have a dirty car because it makes it so easy to distinguish at the Crossroads.

Once when our car was clean, and we had nothing on our mind but groceries, we came out of the store loaded, and collapsed into a nice clean automobile. After thrashing around for awhile with the key we realized that something was awry and looked up just in time to see the owner with a look of quizzical incredulity on his face.

We pulled our coat collar up and our eyebrows down and slunk off muttering something about—S'cuse please—wrong but—and crawled into our machinery of similar brand directly in arrears.

Obviously, our car has not been washed since.

However, inasmuch as we are the only ones in Orinda who follow that system, you will be glad to hear about the P.F. group (Pilgrim Fellowship), which is washing cars tomorrow at Orinda Community Church for $1.25 from 9 to 5 p.m. After the busy day they will go home and wash their dirty little faces and reappear for the "Golden Earrings" dance to be held tomorrow evening from 7 to 10 at the church for 25 cents each. All teen-agers are invited.

AND NOW FOR SOME TEEN-AGE chit-chat from Correspondent Allen Bottomley:

Last Friday night started with quite a bang. First there was the C.S.F. dance at Acalanes. The theme was Blue Hawaii and the decorations were very good. They had a three-piece band which really sounded neat and everybody there enjoyed it very much.

Second, there was the "D.A.'s," the Diablo Assemblies. They had Henry Galagher's orchestra, which was marvelous. The country club was packed and if I started a "who was there" column it would take into the middle of next week to name all. But almost everyone was there and had a wonderful time.

Post 300 of the Explorer Scouts took a skiing trip to Philips on Highway 40 a couple of weeks ago. They left early Saturday morning and got back Sunday night.

Some on the trip were John Conley, Al Stewart, Pete St. Hill, Bob Crall, Pete Sheaff, Jeff Roden, Phil Hunter, Dick Doty, Joe Sheaff, Phil Lowthian, Tom Morrish, Paul Kops and Al Dunham. Everybody had a lot of fun.

AND ONE LAST PARTING SHOT about the Orinda Branch Fashion Show:

General chairman is Mrs. Edmund Cardin. Mrs. Fred Goodwin is in charge of models, Mrs. Herman Eichmeyer in charge of tickets, Mrs. Ted Beckett in charge of the prize, Mrs. Fred Borden in charge of decorations.

Mrs. Stephen Jensen will be the toastmistress, and Mrs. Carl Daily will be in charge of the following junior assistants: Misses Judy Anderson, Les Heche, Kay Mickle, Judy Hall, Nancy Edminster, Judy Dunn, Carolyn Demeter, Mary Ann Somers, Patsey Daily, Mary Anne McGuire and Stephanie Jensen.

Home Department to Discuss Framing

The next meeting of the Orinda Home Department will be Wednesday at 10 a.m.

Mrs. E. D. Howe will be the hostess and project leader at her home at 15 Glorietta Court. Her subject will be "Accessories for the Home," and she will concentrate on picture framing.

Mothers Club Aid To Schools Told At Monthly Meet

The Orinda Mothers Club will buy phonographs for all primary grades which do not have them, will contribute $50 each month for schools' library books and will provide outdoor tables and benches for two Orinda schools, all as a result of club money-making activities this year.

The benefits were announced at the club's general meeting Tuesday at Orinda School. The uses to which funds will go were decided by the club's welfare committee, meeting with Joseph L. Sheaff, superintendent of schools.

Mrs. William P. Gilmore, chairman of this year's primary money-making activity, "Absurdia in Suburbia," announced that more singers are needed for the upcoming show in her report at the meeting. Interested persons may contact her at Orinda 2019.

Mrs. Coleman Huntley, chairman of the health committee, asked for suggestions as to the best use of a school nurse. The health committee, she said will function in matters of safety and health.

SHEAFF REPORTED that registration for kindergarten and first grade pupils to enroll in Orinda schools next fall will be held April 17.

The superintendent asked for cooperation of new residents and asked that "older" residents explain to newcomers the problems of school bus transportation in the Orinda area. He pointed out that the school buses now travel 50,000 miles per year at a cost of 35 to 40 cents per mile.

"OUR BUSES OPERATE on a very tight schedule now, and although each year we review the schedules to better the service, it is impossible to comply with many requests for more and more stops," Sheaff said. He added that occasionally, because of traffic tie-ups in the early morning bus schedules, children think the buses have missed them, whereas the buses are actually only delayed.

"If parents will cooperate with us, we can avoid emotional upsets on the part of the children," Sheaff emphasized.

MRS. MILES SUTLIFFE, vice-president and program chairman of the Mothers Club, asked that members volunteer as practicable for the aircraft warning service of the civilian defense program. Volunteers for as much as one hour on a regular basis may call Lafayette 2762 to assist.

Captain Lilian Kinkela, much-decorated Air Force nurse who has served recently in the air evacuation of Korean war wounded, limned the duties of flight nurses and called for more military nurses, who are badly needed, she said. Nurses completing schooling may apply with the Army, Navy or Air Force for a rewarding career.

Hostesses dispensing refreshments following the meeting were room mothers for Orinda and Sleepy Hollow second grades, under the direction of Mrs. T. A. Schilling, room mother for Mrs. Theorita Canty's class. These included Mrs. Bernard Wilbur and Mrs. Guy Catterton.

Scout Troop 207 Committee Talks About Leadership

The monthly committee meeting of Boy Scout Troop 207 was held March 9 at the home of Joe DeMaria on Southwood Road.

A scout leadership course to be held at Acalanes was discussed and all scout leaders were urged to attend. It is entitled "Basic Training for Scoutmasters, Assistants, and Troop Committeemen."

It is sponsored by the Diablo Council and will be held each Wednesday night at 7:30 p.m.

The topics to be discussed are: March 11th — Boy Scouting Fundamentals; March 18th — Organization & Leadership; March 25th — Helping the Boy Grow; April 8th — Patrol & Troop Hiking; April 15th — Program Planning; April 22nd — Meetings; April 29th — Meetings; May 6th — Patrol and Troop Camping; May 13th — Exploring in the Troop Grows; Plus one overnight session.

It was announced that Mr. Walter S. Johnson has recently donated $4000 to the Diablo Council Camp Redwood in the Santa Cruz Mountains. This money is to develop the 320 acres of camp grounds which Mr. Johnson previously had given to the Council.

Upon recalculation of the points which Troop 207 were entitled to at the recent Scout Show at Acalanes, it was found that they won a blue ribbon instead of the red ribbon previously awarded.

Scoutmasters Gerry Cullen has been honored by being appointed one of the scoutmasters for the National Jamboree to be held in San Diego this summer. Two scoutmasters from Berkeley will serve under him as assistant scoutmasters and thirty-five boys from the troops in this area will make up the troop. As of now, nine boys from Troop 207 will be in this troop.

It was announced by Troop 200 that there will be a joint Court of Honor held at the church Monday. Explorer Post 300, Troop 200 and Troop 207 will join in the venture. Peter St. Hill, formerly of Troop 207 and now a member of Post 300, will receive Scouting's highest award — Eagle Scout — at this ceremony. Scoutmaster Cullen will make the presentation.

Mrs. John Dodge, Chairman of the Annual Troop 207-Lions Club Dinner, explained the details of the dinner. This dinner, to be held March 25th at the Community Church at 7 p.m., is an annual affair given by the scouts of Troop 207 in honor of their sponsoring group, the Orinda Lions Club.

This year's dinner will be of special note as the Scouts will present to the Lions Club the greater part of the cost of a guide dog to be trained by "Guide Dogs for the Blind, Inc." The Scouts have raised this money by themselves in various ways, such as the recent paper drive which collected almost twenty-three tons of scrap paper.

The main speaker of the evening will be Lloyd Henderson, a teacher at the Blind Center. The Boy Scout Troop for the California School of the Deaf will be special guests at the dinner and will conduct the closing ceremony. Each scout of Troop 207 will have the pleasure of inviting one Lion and his wife to the dinner. He will escort them to the dinner and be with them throughout the program.

It's That Well-Dressed Look In Cottons for Orinda Women

"Orinda women like to have a casual look to their clothes, but at the same time they want to look well dressed and have their clothes well fitted."

This was the comment of Mrs. Clarice Helm, proprietor of Country Club Togs, 101 Orinda Highway. Mrs. Helm has been catering to the taste of Orinda women for two and a half years, and although she doesn't claim to be an authority, she made some sage observations on the clothing habits of the local housewives, and misses.

"TAKE MY SELECTION of mens wear," she said. "My ties are very conservative. And do you know that wives do more shopping for ties, socks, shirts, and so forth than the men do themselves. That's why I try to have in stock for men, what a wife would buy for a man".

In the matter of summer fashions, Mrs. Helm added that full skirts and dresses are probably the most popular items at the moment.

"Of course," she continued, "anything in cotton is quit popular. And the cotton fabrics are wonderful this year. They are more dressy than ever, some even having glazed finishes like silk, but they are not more expensive."

"SOME OF MY customers have refused to believe that these fabrics are cotton," she said, "but they are."

Pedal pushers are more popular than slacks, according to Mrs. Helm, and play clothes, sunsuits and shorts have their advocates for casual summer wear.

"But most important of all," she concluded, "remember, even in play clothes, Orinda women like to look well dressed...."

Proper Care of Grape Vines Will Mean Plentiful Supply of Desserts, Spreads

By BERT WRIGHT

ALONG WITH STRAWBERRIES, raspberries and blackberries, grapes will help the home gardener fill his cupboard with tasty desserts and spreads.

With proper care, 12 grape vines will yield 175 to 225 pounds of grapes. As with other berry plants, they should be set in a well-prepared soil, either in spring or fall.

Best results are obtained if plants are set out as soon as they are received from the nursery. When planting, set the plants slightly lower than they were at the nursery and after they are set, cut them back to two buds.

GRAPES SHOULD be spaced 7 to 9 feet apart in rows that are 6 to 10 feet apart. For each 100 feet of row, apply four pounds of complete plant food. The vital nutrients present will help you get bigger yields of full-flavored fruit and also hasten maturity.

Like raspberries and blackberries, grapes are usually cultivated during the early part of the growing season. A summer crop of soybeans may be planted in early July. In September or early October, a winter cover crop of rye may be planted.

Grapes are trained to a two-wire trellis in most cases, although three wires are used by some gardeners. We said previously that when the plant is set out, all the weak canes should be removed and the most vigorous cane cut back to a stub having two buds.

AT THE BEGINNING of the second season, the strongest cane should be selected and stretched up vertically and tied firmly to the trellis. All other canes should be removed.

At the beginning of the third season, four lateral branches are selected along the trellis in the form of a horizontal "H." Each lateral arm should be reduced to a length of 6 to 10 buds, depending on the vigor of the vine. Grapes produce fruit on shoots which grow the previous season, and, therefore, the future training of the vine consists of a constant renewal of these four lateral branches. The system of pruning grapes described here is called the "Kniffin system."

TO HELP GUARD your grapes against attacks by insect and disease pests, dust every week to 10 days during the growing season with an all-purpose garden defense.

The new three-way insecticides and fungicide control most of the chewing insects, sucking insects and fungus diseases that can cause you trouble.

Faith, an' It's A Dance, Now

Everybody and everything was green — or almost so, at the monthly dance of the Acalanes Folk Dance Group Saturday night.

A St. Patrick's Day theme was apparent, with many of the dancers appearing at the Veterans Memorial Hall in Danville in green.

Shamrocks appeared on the programs, and there was a giant shamrock covering one wall of the hall. The program featured dances of Irish origin.

Dick and Barbara Benofsky, Robert and Marian Horonjeff of Lafayette and Stan and Dorothy Baker of Walnut Creek were in charge of the arrangements.

Refreshments, including green plates and decorations in keeping with the theme, were served to the 40 members at the end of the evening.

The group will hold its next dance April 11 at the same place.

Condon To Head Democrat Caucus

Congressman Robert L. Condon has been elected chairman of the Democratic Caucus of new Democratic Congressmen.

The 28 new Democratic members of Congress formed an 83rd Club, being comprised of the new Democrats of the 83rd session.

The Club intends to have weekly meetings to discuss problems of the Congress with various experts.

HOME AND GARDEN

Mapping Your War Against Weeds? Here Are Some Methods to Win . . .

The best way to avoid weeds is not to plant them. Buy the best and cleanest seed possible. Don't use dirty straw or barnyard manure on your new lawn, for these are almost sure to contain weed seeds. These and new soil are usually at fault where the seedling lawn becomes heavily infested with weeds.

Keep a dense, vigorous turf growing at all times. If you do you'll discourage most weeds.

WEED CONTROL is not the same back-breaking, frustating job it was a few years ago. The new selective herbicide, 2,4-D, has changed this. There are many different commercial preparations of 2,4-D. They vary widely in active 2,4-D content. Prices of these formulations ar elargely based on this factor. When used in equivalent amount, however, all give satisfactory control.

You can apply 2,4-D as a spray (mixed with water) or dry (mixed with fertilizer). The manufacturer's directions for preparations of a spray solution are satisfactory. Approximately one ounce of dry 70 per cent 2,4-D in 10 pounds of 10-6-4 fertilizer (enough for 1000 square feet) gives an effective dry preparation. Equivalent amounts of other 2,4-D products can be used in the same way.

IF CORRECTLY applied, 2,4-D will kill most broad-leaved weeds in one application. Remember, though, there will surely be some weed seeds left which will grow later.

2,4-D is deadly—not only to weeds, but to other broad-leaved plants. Be very careful not to let the spray drift onto broad-leaved annuals, perennials, shrubs or vegetables.

SPRAY EQUIPMENT must be carefully washed after use. Even minute traces of 2,4-D may kill some of your valuable ornamentals.

Artists to Hear Jade Fon Speak

The March meeting of the Diablo Art Association will be held Monday at 8 p.m. at the Saint Paul's Episcopal Church meeting hall, Walnut Creek.

Members and the public are invited to hear the guest speaker, Jade Fon, whose subject will be "Pastels."

Jade Fon is well known for his work in portraits, murals, and water color, and has won many awards. He has studied at the Art Students League in Los Angeles, the University of Arizona, and has exhibited many places including the Los Angeles Museum, the San Francisco Museum, the San Diego Museum, and the New Mexico Governors Palace.

At present he has portraits on display at the Artists Market in Lafayette, and classes in water color in Alamo and at the Craft Shop in Lafayette.

Teachers Council Elects Members

Herbert Bergstrom, Martinez teacher, was renominated representative to California Teachers Association State Council at the teachers' recent election.

Winners of other contests at the same election were elected to the Bay Section Council of CTA. Betsy Pembroke, Director of Audio-visual facilities at Acalanes High School; Gerald L. Giles, from the County Schools Dept.; Susan Hansen, teacher at Alamo School, all were elected for two-year terms.

Elected for one-year terms were Theresa Nelson of John Swett High School, Crockett; and John Lynch, Administrator at Pinole-Hercules School.

New Carnations Greatly Reduce Amount of Care

Almost any home gardener now can grow carnations fully as lovely as those the florists feature. Comparatively new hardy varieties, such as Enfant de Nice and Chabaud's Giant, have greatly reduced the amount of care needed. But they retain the almost everblooming character and spicily fragrant double flowers which have made carnations one of the most popular of all perennials.

You now get these newer varieties in flats, according to the Bedding Plant Advisory Board. Not only are the plants hardier but the color range also has been greatly extended. In addition to the familiar whites, pinks and red, there now are such colors as rose, lavender, yellow, orange, purple and two-tones.

PAMPERING no longer is needed, but sunny location and good drainage still are essential. Space flat size plants eight inches (for mass planting) to 15 inches apart. Plant them now, with the top of the ball of roots slightly above ground level. Raise the bed if there is any question about drainage. This will prevent water from standing around the trunks and eventually causing stem rot.

When plants are four to six inches tall, nip off the tops to encourage the growth of more flower stalks from the base. If you wish to concentrate growth in one large, showy flower, snap off all side buds on a stem, leaving only one bud at the end.

TO ENCOURAGE long straight stems on individual specimen plants, tie them to chicken wire supports. Or save tying by growing them within individual chicken wire collars, which their foliage soon hides.

Because carnations grow and bloom repeatedly over many months, feed them regularly with a good commercial fertilizer. You also will encourage your plants to stay bushy if, when cutting the flowers, you cut down to within four or five joints of the base of the stalk.

Foster's Home Judged Outstanding

Mr. and Mrs. William Foster of Orinda have a prize-winning home overlooking the Orinda Country Club Golf Course.

Their home was judged top-flight in a recent Honor Awards Program of the American Institute of Architects. The judges were Richard J. Neutra, Pietro Belluschi and Edward D. Stone.

THE RAMBLING, one-story structure was designed by Henry Hill to fit a lot almost 2000 feet long and 100 feet wide. The problems of privacy and adaptation to site were handled exceptionally well according to the judges.

The plot runs parallel to and faces the golf course. The house steps up the side of the hill on a gradual incline, following the slope of the lot. The use of redwood and masonry permits it to blend into the hillside as if it were an integral part.

THE MAIN LIVING area is level with an enclosed court. A terrace on the west side consists of a cantilevered concrete slab which serves as an outdoor living area, and also shields the living room from the view of golfers below.

Photographs and a floor plan of the Foster home will be among a display of other award-winning homes appearing in the De Young Museum in Golden Gate Park, San Francisco, this month. The exhibits includes homes, schools and churches judged outstanding by the American Institute of Architects.

Artists Group Plans Showing

Plans are now in progress to present the works of several local artists active in the Valley Artists group on Sunday, March 29, from 2 p.m. to 6 p.m. at the Artists Market in Lafayette.

Mrs. Jack Noble, chairman, has announced that a wide variety of crafts will be on display during April and that paintings, prints and jewelry will be included in the show.

The preview open house which is sponsored by Outdoor Art Shows, Inc., is open to the public and refreshments will be served at nominal cost.

Currently showing at the Artists Market is an exhibition of portraits in pastel and oil by Royden Martin, Jade Fon, Emily Descallos and Doris Fraser. This show will continue until March 29.

Bus Drivers Get Driving Awards

Seven Acalanes High School District bus drivers were honored recently at a testimonial safety dinner for their excellent driving record.

The dinner was sponsored by the Lafayette and Orinda PTA, Acalanes Parents' Club, and Las Lomas Amigos, Las Lomas parents.

Each of the drivers awarded had logged more than 15,000 bus miles last year with no accident record. Safety award drivers were commended by Captain George Belon of the California Highway Patrol, Contra Costa County, and by Glen Gongdon, automotive engineer with Hartford Insurance.

Rowland Wilbur is superintendent of the Acalanes District Transportation System which daily carries 3100 students from 7 a. m. to 5:30 p. m. to and from school and on special study tours of Bay Area education attractions.

Christian Science Topic for Sunday Will Be 'Matter'

"Little children, keep yourselves from idols" (I John 5:21). This is the Golden Text for the Lesson-Sermon to be read in all Christian Science churches this Sunday. The subject will be "Matter."

In the sermon this verse from Isaiah will be read:

"Why should ye be stricken any more? ye will revolt more and more: the whole head is sick, and the whole heart faint" (1:5).

Correlative passages in the Christian Science textbook "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, will include the following:

"Not muscles, nerves, nor bones, but mortal mind makes the whole body 'sick, and the whole heart faint,' when no divine Mind heals" (p. 219).

Busy Week Starts For Acalanes Dons

The Dons really get into the swing of things in spring sports this coming week as all teams go into action.

It will be the last chance for the baseball and tennis teams to go into practice tilts prior to the opening of the Contra Costa League play.

The first week in April will find all teams standing by as far as practice and games are concerned, as it will be Easter Week vacation time and league regulations provide that no official workouts can be held during that time.

TODAY THE VARSITY baseball club hosts Livermore, and will make it two in a row against the same opponent when the Acalanes nine travels to Livermore on Monday.

This will be the final game before further paring of the squad, which is currently over the player limit.

THE DONS' TRACK teams go to Berkeley High this afternoon and could be in for a rough time, as the College City track men usually rate high in cinder circles.

It will take come through performances to cop this one.

TUESDAY WILL BE a red-letter day as far as the practice sessions of the swim and baseball teams are concerned, with the Cal Frosh coming to town.

It marks the first time such an event has taken place in swimming and baseball.

Both teams will have a tough hurdle to clear but can do it if they rise to their top potential.

On Wednesday the J.V. baseball team entertains the Pittsburg J.V. and figure to be tough to handle, as they are definitely rounding into shape off their recent showing.

TRACK, STINGING FROM a Varsity upset Monday against Pittsburg, will be out to take it out on Antioch on Thursday with the local oval the secen of action.

The Bees appear to be tops in county circles and could go all the way. Look for the Dons to cop a double win here.

On Saturday, March 28, the Dons trek to El Cerrito High to take part in their annual relays. This is one of Northern California's top early season attractions and will give a good line on strength as far as depth is concerned.

TENNIS LOOKS forward to a meeting with San Ramon on Thursday, with the secent of action the Acalanes courts.

Coach Bob Lord's players are all in fine fettle and ready for a win.

Devil JV Nine Edges Dons 3-2

The Acalanes J.V. baseball team dropped a toughie to the Diablo Devils in a game at Acalanes field Monday afternoon.

Score was: Diablo, 3; Acalanes, 2.

Mike Barret was on the mound for the locals, and the freshman southpaw turned in a top performance. He struck out seven and yielded but four safeties over the seven-inning route.

BIG INNING for the Devils was the second, when they crossed the plate two times.

Leftfielder Taylor stole home in the 6th after having reached first on a single earlier in the inning.

THAT PROVED to be the old ball game, as the Dons managed but two runs of their own.

Acalanes Mermen Sink High-Rated Sequoia Swimmers

The Acalanes swimmers literally left Sequoia High up the creek without a paddle Tuesday when they came through to score an upset win over the highly rated Sequoia swimmers.

The meet, held in the Acalanes pool, provided local swim fans something to yell about. The Varsity battled to a 40-35 win, and the Bees set three new records in winning 43-16.

Only consolation for Sequoia came when they copped a 30 to 8 win in the C division.

THE WINS MARKED the first time the Dons have ever defeated highly rated Sequoia in a meet.

The Acalanes Bees' win was a most impressive one. They took every first except in the relay, where they were disqualified, and took all seconds but two.

They set three new school records in the process.

JACK GRAY proved to be a record-smasher when he stopped the clocks at 1:19.6 in the 100-yard breast stroke to break the old mark of 1:20.0 set by Tom Gentry in 1946.

His other record breaking performance came in the 75-yard medley, when he raced to a :51.6 to break the time set by Lawrence Harper of :52.4 in 1952.

TIM FREEMAN, elongated sophomore, came through in the 50-yard back stroke to become another new record holder with a :23.0 time, in comparison to the :23.4 set by Stan Pedder in 1951.

VARSITY FIRST PLACE winners for the Dons were Brooks De Laneux in the 100-yard breast stroke, 1:09.7; Jim Small in the 200 free style, 2:12.7, and the 200 free style relay, consisting of Phil Condit, Charles Knobel, Jim Spiegl and John Sullivan, 1:50.8.

In the Bee division, those who copped first other than Gray and Freeman were Charles Kops in the 50 free style, :28.8; Mike Small in the 100 free style, 1:05.2 and the 100 yard free style relay, with Peter St. Hill, Don Ong, Charles Kops and Rod Kistinger, :52.2.

Pitt Edges Don Track Varsity; Don Babes Win

The Acalanes track teams traveled to Pittsburg High Monday after having a previously scheduled meet postponed due to too much rain.

Pittsburg's Varsity came through with an upset performance and edged the Dons by a one-point margin, 57-56, but the Don Bees won a convincing victory, 70-43.

A wet and muddy track, coupled with a stiff breeze, produced slow times and marks.

The loss to Pitt's Varsity was the first in the history of the schools in dual meet competition.

THE PITT WIN came in dramatic fashion when the meet hung on the final event, the discus throw.

Jim Hart got off at 128-foot, ¼-inch heave for first, and Ray Williamson copped second, only to have Pitt's Fred Hewins toss one 109 feet, 11 inches, to edge Dick Twomey of Acalanes for the third place and with it went the meet.

IN THE BEE EVENTS, the Don Babes simply had too much all-around strength for their opponents.

One of the better times was turned in by Jim Sweet, who swept the hurdle events with a 9.8 in the 70-yard highs and a 14.8 in the 120-yard lows.

Geoffry Wahl raced to a 40.5 first place in the 330, and teammate Bruce Simon was a double winner with 9 feet, 5¾ inches in the pole vault and 5 feet in the high jump.

IN THE VARSITY Division, the Dons copped a clean sweep in the pole vault, with Ray Oslia and Dick Lee topping 10 feet ½ inch and Gary Howerton taking the third spot.

Mike White, with 5 feet 6 ½inches in the high jump, and Ray Williamson, with 49 feet 5½ inches in the iron ball event, were the only other Dons to cop firsts.

It's cheaper to shop at home.

Don, Emeryville Nines Tie – but Mr. Weather Wins

The Acalanes Varsity baseball team did its best to get in a game with Emeryville High Wednesday afternoon but was forced to credit Old Man Weather with the win when the game, played on the Acalanes diamond, was called in the fourth, due to too much dampness, with the count tied at 3-all.

The Dons gained the draw the hard way when they were forced to come from behind in the final frame after trailing 3-1.

AN ERROR and a hit, along with two walks, gave Emeryville two in the books in the opening frame.

The Dons tallied in the second when John Champlin started the inning off by parking one in the left field ditch on the first pitch. He scampered home with the tally.

EMERYVILLE scored in the top of the fourth when Ray Cunningham walked, went to third on a single by Bob Reganny and scored on Fred Capporico's single to center.

THE STORY ENDED when the Dons came back in the bottom of the fourth to score the tying runs.

Bart Ferro walked, was out on a fielder's choice which put Dick Davis on first.

Bob Gray hit a line drive single and he and Davis scored on a single by Paul Miller after Bob Dwight was out on a called third strike.

Red Jones was out number 3 when he was thrown out, short to first.

IT HAD BEEN DECIDED to call the game at the end of the fourth. As a result, it came to close with the score 3-3.

Rick Johnson and Sammy Delicato shared mound duties for the Dons, giving up five hits between them, while the Acalanes nine garnered a like number of safeties off of Emeryville's chucker, Bobby Regany.

Don Varsity, JV Nines Both Bow To El Cerrito

The Acalanes Varsity and J.V. nines found the going on the rough side when they tangled with El Cerrito last Friday afternoon at El Cerrito.

The games were picked up on a last minute notice when rain had knocked out previously scheduled games.

The Dons proved to be rusty around the edges. Too many walks plus crucial errors and mental lapses resulted in an 8-0 loss for the Varsity, while the Junior Varsity toppled 8-5.

The Varsity game went nine frames, while the J.V. contest was an abbreviated five-inning affair, due to a time limit imposed before game time.

IN THE VARSITY tilt El Cerrito wrapped it up in the first three innings when John Olcott of the Dons had difficulty finding the plate and gave up two runs in the first and five in the third with four walks and three hits, which, combined with two miscues in the playing field, put El Cerrito well out in front.

Rick Johnson took over the hurling in the next three innings and, outside of a home run clout, set the opposition down with clock-like regularity.

RED JONES took over in the seventh and went the rest of the way, hurling shut-out ball over the rest of the route.

IN THE J.V. game, the Don Babes scored five runs in the fifth when they put together four hits, two walks and two "hit by pitches."

SPOTLIGHTING THE STRIP

By KITTY COLE

Since Monday is my deadline on the newspaper and I want to give all of you "last minuters" a chance, the winner will not be announced until next week.

The letters and cards have really been coming in, and AL and ROSE MORTARA join me in thanking you for your interest in the new motel.

If you are a member of a club, and have been wanting a different kind of entertainment for your group, have you thought of EL NIDO RANCHO'S Breakfast-broadcast? More and more organizations are finding that the delectable chuck-wagon breakfast, star-studded entertainment and relaxed broadcast interviews are a great way to spend a Sunday from noon, on.

Did you stand on your head last week and read the HAL'S CHICK'N and DUMPLIN' ad? Quite an idea to have a get-together on Friday nights when everyone brings a musical instrument to join in for a "music for fun" evening. HELEN HAINES plays piano and sings your favorite tunes.

One of our local gals, a member of The SUN'S staff, BILLIE POLLARD, has written a lovely song and entered it in the Del Courtney "Search for Songs" program. Let's wish her luck.

Did you know you can go to FREDDIE'S PIZZERIA and buy those pizzas to take home, or if you want to try your own concoction, FREDDIE will sell you the uncooked dough? But don't try to analyze the recipe, it's a professional secret.

I've raved and raved about the sea-food at the CAPE COD HOUSE, but have you ever tried the steaks? They are "out of the world" but you don't have to go there to get them. Just try CAPE COD HOUSE.

This is your Invitation to DANNY VAN ALLEN'S
